Would you like to receive our free on-line newsletter?

If you'd like to subscribe to our free newsletter, "Citation Software News," please check the box at the left. Our newsletter is distributed via e-mail several times per year. It contains up-to-date information about software solutions for printing and publishing, postal automation, and data cleansing; it also contains news concerning developments and standards related to variable-data-publishing technology and Web-to-print technology.

How you'll receive your software: If you are ordering PDF Snake, FusionPro Desktop, or any "Quite" product, you'll receive the software via download. If you are ordering PrintShop Mail, you'll receive a physical package but no download. If you are ordering a product that's not in the list above, we'll contact you to let you know how your software will be delivered.
